So what is investing?

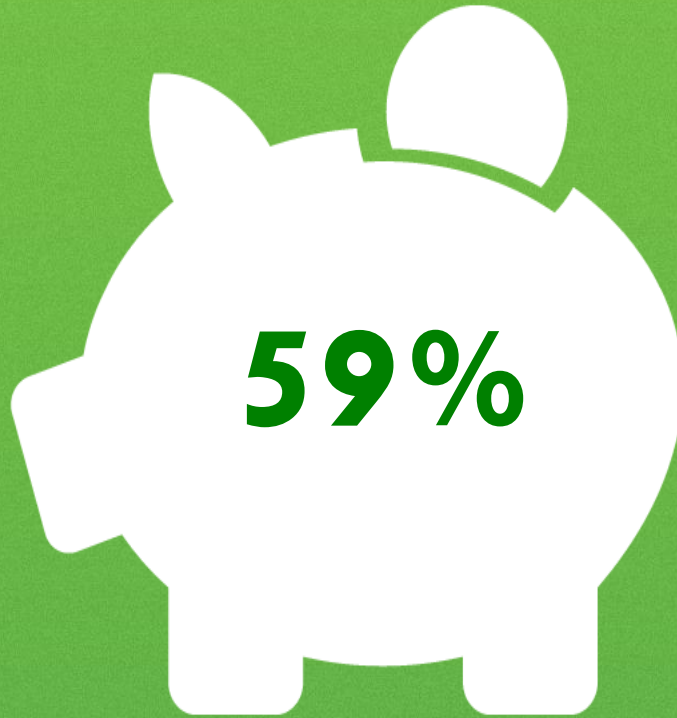

Investing is voting with your money

The greatest threat to our future is that most people don't understand how to vote with their money

Tickets to the summit

MISSION

Building the world's largest social investment network

The screenshot displays the eToro platform interface. At the top, the navigation bar includes 'People', 'Markets', 'Trading', and 'More', along with a search bar and a user profile for 'hornet1'. The main content area features the profile of Julio Rus Fernandez, a trader from Malsolo, Spain. His profile includes a profile picture, a bio, and social media sharing options. A prominent green box asks 'Have a Question?' with a text input field. The central part of the page shows an equity chart for the last 30 days, with a note that past performance is not a guarantee of future results. To the right, a 'Key Statistics' section lists metrics such as Gain (0.24%), Profitable Weeks (66.67%), Max Weekly Drawdown (46.00%), and Low Leverage Trades (97.1%). A 'Give Your Friends a $20 Gift Card' button is also visible.
